Guideline for classes

- Be punctual! Allow extra time to walk your dog before class. We have a lot to cover, and the time will fly by.
- Wear comfortable clothing. Some activities will involve sitting on the floor with your dog. Sneakers are preferred footwear. Flip-flops or sandals are not allowed.
- Clean up after your dog. Poop bags and a disposal container will be provided.
- Please bring a 6-foot leash and the collar your dog currently uses. If additional training tools are necessary, they will be discussed during class. Flexi-leads and harnesses are not recommended, and flexi-leads are not permitted during training sessions. This will be addressed on the first night.
- Bring plenty of treats! Include a variety of treat types with different levels of value. It's better to bring more than you think you'll need. We'll also cover how to phase treats out.
- Health precautions: Ensure your dog follows your veterinarian's recommendations and is free from internal and external parasites as well as communicable diseases.
- Vaccination records must be provided on the first night of class.
- Refunds are only available for cancellations made at least one week before the class begins.
- Females in heat are not allowed in class.
- Aggression concerns: Any aggression issues will need to be evaluated before enrollment.
